

House Resolution No. 1998

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, James M. Frasch of Troop 977 in O'Fallon, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held May 10, 2003, at O'Fallon Christian Church; and

Whereas, James Frasch earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved constructing a fence enclosure and pouring a concrete pad to accommodate two large dumpsters for the Salvation Army campus in O'Fallon; and

Whereas, during his five years in the Scouting program, James Frasch earned an impressive twenty-two merit badges, attained membership in the Order of the Arrow, and participated in Junior Leader Training Camp, three summer camps, and more than six camporees; and

Whereas, James Frasch has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Patrol Leader, Historian, and Librarian; and

Whereas, James Frasch is an exemplary student who excels in his studies, is courteous to his teachers and fellow classmates, and does his best to live each day by the high standards and ideals of Scouting; and

Whereas, James Frasch has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Lydell and Susan Frasch of O'Fallon:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to James Frasch at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout James M. Frasch.
